The cover of the BANAR this month is the idea of one of our typical Hamlet Teeners, and expresses their idea of what we are thinking as May draws to a close. The Publicity Committee will be using YOUR COVERS, and as it is YOUR paper, we sincerely hope you will make use of it, if only to beef!!! Your contributions are gratefully received.

---

Life is now in session. Are you present??

Bill Copeland

The head usher at our church files an attendance report every Sunday. A space is provided for listing special factors influencing attendance, such as bad weather or the opening of deer season. After a poor turnout on Palm Sunday last year, the usher wrote: "Religious Holiday."

My affluent neighbour was startled when her 14 year old son announced that he wanted to become a garbage collector. "I'll never get used to that boy," she moaned. When I asked her why he should want to be a garbage collector, she sighed and said, "He thinks they only work on Tuesdays."

JUNE GENERAL MEETING

8:00 p.m. MONDAY JUNE 1, 1970
@ Blackburn Public School

Is your youngster starting school next fall? Do you have children already in school? If so, the June General Meeting is especially for you. Our guest speaker is Dr. Agatha Sidlauskas, the head of the Child Study Centre at the University of Ottawa. She will be speaking on 'HOW PARENTS CAN PREPARE THEIR CHILDREN FOR SCHOOL AND HOW YOU CAN YOUR CHILDREN ONCE THEY ARE IN SCHOOL.'

Dr. Sidlauskas is a specialist in child psychology, experienced in counselling children, parents and teachers. She has been widely acclaimed for her insight into adjustment problems of children in family and school life. Dr. Sidlauskas is prepared to answer questions over a wide range of topics in addition to her presentation. Jot down some of those nagging questions that you have always wanted to ask of an expert child psychologist, bring them along and contribute to another evening of informative discussion. Dr. Sidlauskas is well worth a special effort on your part to attend. Come and invite your friends. This will be the last meeting until October. Remember, Monday, June 1, 8p.m., Blackburn Public school.
